Subject: Chi-X publishes draft Operating Rules Procedures for industry consultation

Chi-X is today publishing draft Operating Rules Procedures for industry consultation. The Procedures are by their nature more fluid than the Operating Rules to which they relate (which were published for consultation on Friday 4 March 2011 - see Compliance Notice 0001/11). The Procedures are not subject to the same requirements of ASIC review and Ministerial non-disallowance as the Operating Rules. Further, the Procedures are likely to be changed in April when ASIC is finalising its regulatory framework for the introduction of market competition. However, the Procedures do provide useful information on the operation of the Rules and so Chi-X is publishing the current draft to enable feedback on the package of Rules and Procedures that will apply to conduct in relation to the Chi-X Market.

Any comments that will assist Chi-X to deliver a rules and procedures framework that is user friendly and facilitates the efficient operation of a fair, orderly and transparent market, are very much welcomed.

The closing date for comments is 25 March 2011.
