

Chi-X Australia Appoints Senior Business Development Executive

Innovative stock exchange, Chi-X Australia has appointed Adrian Fyffe to the role of Business Development Executive. Mr. Fyffe brings over ten years of business and product development experience within the financial services sector and joins Chi-X Australia from his previous role as Head of Institutional and Online Trading Services at leading financial-technology solutions provider IRESS.

Prior to working at IRESS, Mr. Fyffe held a variety of senior positions including Product Development Manager, Westpac Online Investing for BT Financial Group and Product Development Manager and Responsible Manager roles at First Prudential Markets.

Mr. Fyffe will be responsible for sales to all of Chi-X's customers with a focus on market data and Chi-X unique products including the recently launched Transferable Custody Receipts (TraCRs), which provide Australian investors with simple access to some of the world's largest companies on a local exchange.

Chi-X Australia Chief Executive Vic Jokovic said "Mr. Fyffe's appointment was a strategic move given the firm's various innovations and developments in the pipeline".

Chi-X Australia is committed to improving the Australian investment market by enhancing execution efficiencies and by delivering cost-savings through innovative products such as TraCRs.

"Adrian's technical knowledge of financial services product development and experience in driving product awareness makes him a valuable addition to the team and we are pleased to welcome him to Chi-X Australia," said Mr. Jokovic.
